NEW RELEASE

Living in Australia Intermediate Workbook & Audio CDs –

A general English course book aligned to Certificate 111 in CSWE

The Living in Australia series is an exciting range of text-based course books which provide complete programs for adult ESL students at beginner, post-beginner and intermediate levels.

The course books are accompanied by audio CDs and are designed to support a range of curricula including the Certificates I, II and III in Spoken and Written English. Units are based on the spoken and written texts that second language learners need to engage in community and workplace contexts.

The course books provide students

- with practice in all aspects of language,
- with information and interesting facts about Australia
- with a tapescript and answers which makes it suitable for self study
 - with Cds featuring Australia accents
 - at a price so that all students can afford them.

Beginner and Post beginner levels available September/October – pre-publication orders being taken now! Please advise whether you wish to receive all levels at the same time or as they are published.
